Polish Honey Vodka

On June 26, 2007, the Board sent a notice of default to respondent because no answer had been filed.<sup>1</sup>

The record shows no response thereto.

Accordingly, judgment by default is hereby entered against respondent, the petition to cancel is granted, and <sup>1</sup>The Board notes that respondent's copy of the notice of default was returned to the Board by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. The Board was unable to obtain a better address for respondent.

It is the responsibility of the parties to an inter partes proceeding to keep the Office informed of their current address. If a party fails to do so, and the Board is unable to locate the party, the Board will continue to send correspondence to the party's last-known address, and when the party fails to file a response, the proceeding may be decided as in case of default.

Registration Nos. 3025470 and 3025471 will be cancelled in due course. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55, and Trademark Rule 2.114(a).
