v.

3M Company

Cheryl Butler, Attorney, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On December 2, 2010, respondent notified the Board that the district court issued a final judgment on November 24, 2010 in the civil litigation between the parties. Respondent submitted a copy of the court's holding, dated August 9, 2010, that respondent's registration is valid and a copy of the court's final judgment. Respondent further acknowledges that the district court's determination may be appealed (that is, the appeal period has not yet expired with no appeal having been taken). Accordingly, the civil action which occasioned the suspension of this proceeding is still pending and proceedings herein remain suspended pending final determination of the civil action. See Trademark Rule 2.117(a).

Within twenty days after such final determination (if an appeal is taken) or after expiration of the time for an appeal where not appeal has been taken, the parties shall so notify the Board and call up this proceeding for appropriate action.

During the suspension period, the parties shall notify the Board of any address changes for the parties or their attorneys.
