Attorney

7. Registrant is without knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 7 of the Cancellation Petition, and therefore denies same.

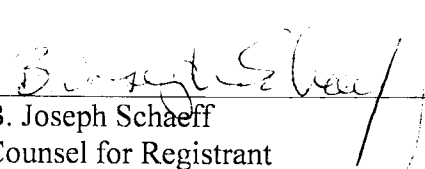

8. Registrant is without knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 8 of the Cancellation Petition, and therefore denies same.

9. Registrant denies the allegations in paragraph 9 of the Cancellation Petition.

10. Registrant denies the allegations in paragraph 10 of the Cancellation Petition.

In view of the foregoing, Registrant contends that this Cancellation Petition is groundless in fact, that Petitioner has not shown that it will be damaged by registration of Registrant's mark, and Registrant prays that this Cancellation be dismissed.

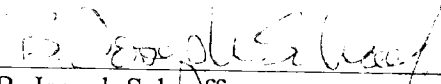

Respectfully submitted,
Dinsmore & Shohl LLP
