CORRECTION REGARDING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION WITH CONSENT
FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

On July 3, 2014, Orbis Distribution, Inc. (“plaintiff”) filed a Motion with Consent for an extension of fifteen (15) days to respond to the defendant. The plaintiff notes that its counsel incorrectly twice listed “motion for summary judgment” when “motion for judgment on the pleadings” was intended. These errors occurred on page two in the fourth paragraph.

Specifically, the plaintiff’s counsel wrote:

The Board Interlocutory Attorney has given the Petitioner fifteen days to Respond to the Motion for Summary Judgment. The Petitioner has begun to draft responses to all of the documents, including the Response to the Board Inquiry and the Motion to Amend, and specifically the Motion for the Summary Judgment.

This paragraph should have been written as follows:

The Board Interlocutory Attorney has given the petitioner fifteen days to respond to the motion for judgment on the pleadings. The petitioner has begun to draft responses to all of the documents, including the Response to the Board Inquiry, the Motion to Amend, and the Motion for the Judgment on the Pleadings.

Counsel for the plaintiff apologizes to the Board for this error and asks the Board to amend its Motion with Consent in manner indicated herein.

I note that this Correction made with consent of the counsel for the defendant.

Dated: July 5, 2013

Respectfully Submitted,
