v.

Naturally Plus Direct Marketing Pte.
Ltd.

Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal:

On July 16, 2014, the Board granted petitioner's motion for leave to file an amended petition to cancel.

However, it has come to the Board's attention that the dates in the scheduling order were inaccurate, in that, the Board's scheduling order allowed a full six months of discovery after the filing of the new answer, instead of the time that remained at the filing of the motion.¹

In view thereof, the parties are allowed thirty days from the mailing date of this order to serve responses to any outstanding discovery, and the trial dates listed in the Board's July 16, 2014 order are modified below.
