Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist:

On December 5, 2016, the Board issued an order to show cause in view of Respondent's apparent loss of interest in this proceeding after the withdrawal of Respondent's counsel on October 21, 2016. On January 6, 2017, Respondent filed a response and requested additional time to appoint new counsel. No response to the motion was filed. Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

In view thereof, Respondent's request for additional time is granted. Respondent is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to appoint new counsel, or to file a paper stating that Respondent chooses to represent itself. If Respondent files no response, the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against respondent based on Respondent's apparent loss of interest in the proceeding.

Proceedings otherwise remain suspended.
