L.A. Car Connection, Inc.

v.

LA Auto Connection.com, Inc.

M. Catherine Faint, Interlocutory Attorney:

Answer was due in this case on December 14, 2016. No answer was entered into the record and the Board issued notice of default on January 27, 2017. In response, Petitioner filed, February 22, 2017, a consented motion to suspend the proceeding pending review of the consent agreement between the parties by the Examining Attorney is granted. TBMP § 605.03(c) (2017).

As it appears Respondent has not lost interest in this matter and the parties appear to have settled this matter, Respondent's technical default is discharged.

Accordingly, proceedings are suspended for ninety (90) days pending the examining attorney's action on the settlement agreement that was filed in petitioner's pleaded application Serial No. 86684116.

Within twenty days after receipt of registration or notice of abandonment in connection with the above application, petitioner should notify the Board so that this
