To Whom it may concern:

I just received another email 3/8/2021 saying that the answer to the petition to cancel was due on Feb 18, 2021. I did respond on Feb 4, 2021 to that and the last thing that was requested of me was to show proof of service, which I did and uploaded photos as well. I have already given my reason as to why my trademark should not be cancelled. As a matter of fact I believe I was very clear. But once again I will respond by saying;

I paid for, waited the publishing period, and legally got my trademark. HC Brand holdings failed to apply and I get it. Even companies like Mr. Bubbles could have said mine was to close and they didn't.

I have stated that I am perfectly fine with signing something to allow HC Brand Holdings to have the name "BUBBLES" as long as I can keep mine which is "The Bubble" Or I will be happy to sell them my name and everything that comes with it for a fair price of my business.

Response time for me varies as I do not always get to my emails so since I have thirty (30) days to respond to this I am right on time!

This situation is holding me up from opening another storefront! I am not happy! I am a single business owner doing this on my own. The Trademark people should be protecting me. But I can not open another storefront with the fear of my name being taken away. That would be devastating to my business
