Cancellation No. 92075844

American Diabetes Association

v.

Remedy Health Media, LLC

Rochelle Adams, Paralegal Specialist:

The Board sent notice of institution of this proceeding to Respondent on December 1, 2020 using an authorized email address, but received a returned copy or notification of non-delivery in paper or electronic form.¹ Accordingly, the Board effects service by publication, and additional notice will be given by publication in the Official Gazette. See Trademark Rule 2.118.

The Board also notes that the notice of default issued by the Board on January 20, 2021 was returned as non-delivery in paper form. In view thereof, the order is hereby vacated.

¹ The Board encourages trademark owners to exercise due diligence in monitoring the status of their applications and registrations, and their correspondence information, online through the USPTO website and databases accessible from the website. Every party is responsible for ensuring that the Board has its current email and correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. See TBMP § 117.07.
