RESPONDENT’S MOTION TO DISMISS PETITION TO CANCEL

Respondent Peace of Mind Home Health Care Inc. d/b/a “Peace of Mind, Inc” (“Peace of Mind”) moves to dismiss Petitioner A Peace of Mind Home Care, LLC’s (“Petitioner”) petition to cancel Registration No. 3859940 (the “Petition”) pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Fed. R. Civ. P.”) 12(b)(6), Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b), Trademark Board Manual of Procedure (“TBMP”) 503.02, and Trademark Rule 2.116(a).

I. INTRODUCTION

Petitioner seeks cancellation of Respondent’s Registration No. 3029738 on two separate bases. Both lack merit. First, Petitioner claims that the registration was fraudulently procured, but such claim must fail because Petitioner does not allege facts to support it. In fact, Petitioner does not even identify a misrepresentation, or allege that Respondent intended to deceive the USPTO. Second, Petitioner claims “abandonment” but does not allege non-use, intent not to resume use, or any facts supporting naked licensing. Rather, Petitioner relies solely on threadbare allegations of third-party use of PEACE OF MIND, which fail to support abandonment of Respondent's registered mark. Moreover, any amendment to these claims would be futile because Petitioner's claims fail as a matter of law.

In sum, the Petition to Cancel should be dismissed with prejudice.

II. STANDARD

A motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted is a test solely of the legal sufficiency of a claim. TBMP § 503.02; Covidien LP v. Masimo Corp., 109 U.S.P.Q.2d 1696, 1697 (TTAB 2014). Such motions allow “the court to eliminate actions that are fatally flawed in their legal premise and destined to fail, and thus to spare litigants the burdens of unnecessary pretrial and trial activity.” Advanced Cardiovascular Sys. Inc. v. SciMed Life Sys. Inc., 988 F.2d 1157, 1161, 26 U.S.P.Q.2d 1038, 1041 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“FRCP”) 8 requires Petitioner to “state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Moreover, as applied to fraud claims; see also Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 9(b) requires factual allegations supporting fraud claims to be stated with “particularity.”

The Board must grant a motion to dismiss under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) if claims in the petition fail to “state a claim upon which relief can be granted.” Further, the Board should dismiss insufficient pleadings with prejudice if amendment would be futile. See Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962) (finding that “futility of amendment” is a reason to deny leave for amendment). Amendment is futile where “leave to amend the pleading would serve no useful purpose.” Pure Gold, Inc. v. Syntex (U.S.A.) Inc., 221 U.S.P.Q. (BNA) 151, 154 (TTAB 1983). See also Dragon Bleu v. VENM, LLC, 112 U.S.P.Q.2D (BNA) 1925, 1929 n.10 (TTAB 2014) (denying motion to amend where Board could “perceive no theory by which the recited facts could plausibly be alleged to constitute fraud”); Institut Nat’l Des Appellations D’Origine v. Brown-Forman Corp., 47 U.S.P.Q.2D (BNA) 1875, 1896, 1998 TTAB LEXIS 122, at *73

(TTAB 1998) (denying motion to amend notice of opposition where opposers' claim would fail as a matter of law).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Petitioner's Fraud Claim Must Be Dismissed

"Fraud in procuring a trademark registration occurs when an Applicant for registration knowingly makes a false, material representation of fact in connection with an application to register with the intent of obtaining or maintaining a registration to which it is otherwise not entitled." Dragon Bleu (SARL) v. VENM, LLC, 112 U.S.P.Q.2d 1925 (T.T.A.B. 2014) (citing In re Bose Corp., 580 F.3d 1240 (Fed. Cir. 2009)). "A party making a fraud claim is under a heavy burden because fraud must be proved by clear and convincing evidence, leaving nothing to speculation, conjecture, or surmise. Any doubt must be resolved against the party making the claim." University Games Corporation v. 20Q.net Inc., 2008 WL 1944635, *2 (T.T.A.B. 2008).

Specifically, Rule 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires that in all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake "must" be stated with "particularity." As the Board has explained, such pleadings "must allege sufficient underlying facts from which a court may reasonably infer that a party acted with the requisite state of mind." Dallas C. Brown Jr. v. Courtney L. Bishop, Cancellation No. 92050965, 2010 WL 2946844, at *5 (TTAB Jul. 12, 2010). Mere conclusory statements of fraud are inadequate to satisfy that burden. See King Automotive, Inc. v. Speedy Muffler King, Inc., 667 F.2d 1008, 1011 (TTAB 1981) (pleading must include "factual basis" for averments of fraud); W.R. Grace & Co. v. Arizona Feeds, 195 U.S.P.Q. 670, 672 (TTAB 1977) (mere conclusive or general allegations of fraud are insufficient to support a claim); La Maur, Inc. v. Computer Styles, Inc., 169 U.S.P.Q. 495, 497 (TTAB 1971) (mere charges of fraud absent detailed factual support thereof are insufficient); Valley Paper Co. v. Whiting Paper Co., 107 U.S.P.Q. 175, 176 (TTAB 1955) (fraud must be “definitely and positively” alleged).

Petitioner cannot meet the high burden required to sufficiently plead a fraud claim. In its Petition to Cancel, Petitioner makes conclusory allegations that Respondent made “false representations.” 1 TTABVUE ¶¶ 25, 26, 27. Petitioner also alleges that Respondent “fail[ed] to disclose the facts as set forth in this Petition to Cancel” (id. at ¶ 28), but fails to identify those “false representations” or undisclosed “facts” with specificity. Yet absent specific allegations of what misrepresentation was made, Petitioner’s fraud claim fails. See Richard Starkey Aka Ringo Starr v. Pacific Coast Holdings IP, LLC, No. 91246962, 2021 WL 1050402, at *5, n.22 (Mar. 17, 2021) (dismissing fraud based on “a failure to disclose” because Opposer “failed... to identify in the notice of opposition any explicit statements he alleges to be fraudulent” and rejecting fraudulent procurement based on failure to disclose).

Petitioner’s allegations regarding Massachusetts state licensure for “hospice programs” fare no better. Petitioner alleges that “Registrant was not licensed to provide ‘hospice care services’” (id. at ¶¶ 15, 34, 35) (emphasis added) because Massachusetts “hospice programs” must be licensed (1 TTABVUE ¶ 17) (emphasis added). In doing so, Petitioner falsely equates “hospice care programs” with “hospice care services”, which are far broader. Massachusetts law narrowly defines a “hospice program” to include specific services, e.g., “physician’s services” that Respondent does not provide. Mass. Gen. Laws Ann. ch. 111, § 57D. Indeed, Petitioner does not allege that Respondent offers a hospice program (or “physician’s services”). Nor can Petitioner plausibly do so. (See McCormack Decl. at ¶ 20.) Rather, Petitioner baldly alleges that “any use of the Registrant’s Trademark by Registrant in connection with ‘hospice care services’ is not legal use in commerce” (1 TTABVUE ¶ 21) (emphasis added) because hospice programs must be licensed. Such conclusory allegations cannot support fraud. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b).¹

Moreover, even if Petitioner’s understanding of Massachusetts law were correct (it is not), it would mean no fewer than 16 federal trademark registrations for Class 44 hospice services offered in Massachusetts are invalid and/or premised on unlawful use. Compare Exhibit A (showing publicly available list of entities licensed in Massachusetts to offer hospice programs) with Exhibit B (attaching 16 federal registrations owned by unlicensed entities offering Class 44 hospice services in Massachusetts). That is not the case. Respondent, and any other registrant for hospice services offered in Massachusetts, may lawfully offer those services, e.g., staffing for a licensed hospice program. (See McCormack Decl. at ¶ 20.) Regardless, the issue is one of Massachusetts law, and the Board cannot find Respondent’s “hospice services” unlawful unless a “court or government agency having competent jurisdiction under the statute involved” has already done so. See ZAO Gruppa Predpriyatij Ost v. Vosk International Co. (Opposition No. 91168423 (T.T.A.B. Aug. 9, 2011) (collecting cases).

Petitioner’s fraud claim fails for the additional reason that Petitioner cannot specifically allege that Respondent had any deceptive intent. Critically, “[t]here is no fraud if a false misrepresentation is occasioned by an honest misunderstanding or inadvertence without a willful intent to deceive.” In re Bose Corp., 580 F.3d 1240, 1246 (Fed. Cir. 2009). While Petitioner alleges that “Registrant was aware the Registrant was not licensed to provide ‘hospice care services’, at the time that Registrant filed Registrant’s Trademark Application” (1 TTABVUE ¶ 23), Petitioner does not allege that Registrant knew it had to be licensed to offer “hospice care services” in the first place.

Petitioner would have the Board gloss over the distinction between “hospice care services” and “hospice care programs,” and assume that, because this Massachusetts state law regulation exists, Respondent necessarily knew about it, understood it, and intentionally failed to follow it. Petitioner has no basis to allege those facts, and certainly cannot do so on information and belief. See Asian and Western Classics B.V. v. Selkow, 92 U.S.P.Q.2d 1478 (T.T.A.B. 2009) (“Allegations based solely on information and belief raise only the mere possibility that such evidence may be uncovered and do not constitute pleading of fraud with particularity.”) Accordingly, Petitioner’s fraud claim must fail.

B. Petitioner’s Abandonment Claim Lacks Merit

To state a claim to cancel a registration on grounds of abandonment, Petitioner must plead ultimate facts pertaining to the alleged abandonment to provide Respondent with fair notice of Petitioner’s theory of abandonment. Otto Int’l Inc. v. Otto Kern GmbH, 83 U.S.P.Q.2d 1861, 1863 (TTAB 2007); see also Clubman’s Club Corp. v. Martin, 188 U.S.P.Q. 455, 456 (TTAB 1975). To adequately plead an abandonment claim, Applicant must allege facts that, if proven, would establish at least three consecutive years of a mark’s nonuse or, alternatively, a period of nonuse less than three years plus proof of intent not to resume use. Imperial Tobacco Ltd. v. Philip Morris Inc., 899 F.2d 1575, 1579 (Fed. Cir. 1990); Shutemdown Sports, Inc. v. Carl Dean Lacy, 102 U.S.P.Q.2d 1036 (T.T.A.B. 2012) (“There are two elements to an abandonment claim that a plaintiff must prove: nonuse of the mark and intent not to resume use.”)

Petitioner does not allege that Respondent ever stopped using the mark PEACE OF MIND. Nor does Petitioner allege that Respondent does not intend to resume use of the mark

PEACE OF MIND. Instead, Petitioner alleges “abandonment” of Respondent’s rights due solely to third-party use of “the term ‘Peace of Mind.’” (1 TTABVUE ¶¶ 44-54). Such allegations cannot support nonuse abandonment. Nor does Petitioner plead facts sufficient to support an abandonment claim premised on naked licensing, as Petitioner “does not allege any facts as to uncontrolled use of the mark.” Dr. Donald N. Vespa v. Interdent Service Corporation, No. CANCELLATION 9205409, 2012 WL 12517491, at *4 (Oct. 1, 2012). The Board’s decision in Nobelle.com, LLC v. Qwest Commc’ns Int’l, Inc., 66 U.S.P.Q.2d 1300 (T.T.A.B. 2003) is instructive:

Petitioner’s “naked licensing” abandonment argument fails because there is no evidence that respondent licenses the Bell logo mark to Unical, or to anyone else, for use in connection with telecommunications services. Because respondent does not license the mark for use in connection with telecommunications services, there is no basis for finding that respondent engages in naked licensing with respect to such services; the question of whether respondent exercises adequate quality control over use of the mark in connection with such services does not even arise. Moreover, even if petitioner is correct in contending that respondent has failed to exercise quality control over Unical’s marketing of telephones and telephone products (a question we need not and do not decide), such failure by respondent is irrelevant to the issue to be decided in this case, i.e., whether respondent has abandoned the mark with respect to the telecommunications services recited in the registration petitioner seeks to cancel.

In support of its “abandonment” claim, Petitioner vaguely references “third-parties” that use the mark for “services that are both identical to and similar to Registrant’s Services” but does not identify a single one. (See 1 TTABVUE ¶¶ 44-54). Petitioner’s speculative “allegations” do not provide Respondent with any notice, let alone fair notice, of Petitioner’s abandonment theory. Petitioner’s claim amounts to nothing more than speculation and guesswork, and Petitioner cannot raise a wholly unsupported claim on the hope that discovery will later provide support. Such a proposition turns the discovery process—which is designed to uncover information relevant to those plausible claims and defenses that meet the pleading standards—on its head. See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678-79 (pleadings do not “unlock the doors of discovery for a plaintiff armed with nothing more than conclusions.”).

C. Petitioner’s Claims Should be Dismissed With Prejudice Because Any Amendment Would Be Futile

Petitioner’s petition cannot be saved through amendment. While Petitioner’s current pleading is transparently lacking, no amendment can cure it. Void ab initio claims are time-barred. See 15 U.S.C. § 1064(3). Fraud claims absent allegations of intent to deceive categorically fail. See Dragon Bleu, 112 U.S.P.Q.2D (BNA) at 1929. And abandonment claims unsupported by nonuse or naked licensing allegations have no chance of success. Any amendment would be futile.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above, Peace of Mind Home Health Care, Inc. respectfully requests that the Board dismiss the Petition for Cancellation in its entirety with prejudice and without leave to amend.

Respectfully Submitted,

Peace of Mind strives to provide top quality, affordable home health care with a concentration on personal service.

From a day-to-day companion, to an around the clock nurse, we can give you the comfort of knowing your loved one is cared for with the personal attention only you would wish to provide. With attention to normal daily living, we provide assistance in the home setting. This attention allows your loved one to feel more at ease by staying in an environment that is familiar to them. You have the comfort of knowing that they are receiving excellent care and their needs are being met. Additionally, we offer support out of the home in such environments as hospitals and nursing homes. This is to ensure that your loved one is receiving the quality of care they deserve.

We are always available to alleviate any concerns you and/or your loved one may have about their general welfare. The Director of Peace of Mind will always be available to you, should you feel the need for better understanding of the care being given. Our belief is that each patient's situation is unique and we must meet these individual needs.

Our specially trained staff includes home health aides, companions, nurses, and temporary live-in. Each of whom has experience in adapting the home based on each individual's need. It is important to us that our patient doesn't feel disrupted in the environment that has been so familiar to them.

Home Services Provided:

- Nutrition and dietary maintenance
- Pain control: monitoring as prescribed
- Hygiene and daily physical care
- Daily living needs

We also offer assistance with services outside of the home. Peace of Mind can assist with easing difficulties incurred when your loved one is in a hospital or nursing home.

Outside Services Provided:

- Transportation
- Emotional support for physicians visits
- Answers to questions pertaining to care
- Daily living needs
- Companionship
- Insurance questions/concerns
- Rental/use of equipment: monitors, beds
- Coordination of care

If there is ever anything you and/or your loved one does not understand about their care or general information as to availability of services that may help them, we will provide information and answer questions so you know what alternatives are available to you to insure the best decisions can be made about their care. If we don't have the answers, we will seek out the information and update you on the progress until we can gather it.

Additionally, we understand that you will have concerns that you may want to have addressed before, during, and after care. That's why taking the time to personally know each of our patients and their families is so important at Peace Of Mind.

Whatever form we are,
able or disabled,
rich or poor,
it is not how much we do,
but how much love we put in the doing
