Merck KGaA, Petitioner, v. Harvest IP Holdings, LLC, Respondent.

ANSWER TO PETITION FOR CANCELLATION

Registrant Harvest IP Holdings, LLC ("Respondent"), by and through its undersigned counsel, answers the separately numbered allegations of Petitioner Merck KGaA's ("Petitioner") Petition for Cancellation ("Petition") as follows:

1. Respondent denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of the Petition on the basis that it is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein.

2. Admits.

3. Respondent denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 3 of the Petition on the basis that it is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein.

4. Denies.

5. Respondent denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 of the Petition on the basis that "alleged mark" is undefined and vague that therefore Respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein.

6. Respondent denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 6 of the Petition on the basis that "alleged mark" is undefined and vague that therefore Respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein

7. Denies.

8. Denies.

9. Denies.

10. Paragraph 10 of the Petition contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Respondent denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 10 on the basis that it is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein.

GENERAL DENIAL

Respondent denies all allegations in the Petition that are not expressly admitted herein.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Respondent reserves the right to assert affirmative defenses in the future, as warranted by further investigation and discovery.

Dated this 3rd day of January 2023.

Respectfully Submitted,
