v.

Lev Glazman

J. Krisp, Interlocutory Attorney:

On March 23, 2023 Wendi E. Sloane, counsel for Respondent, contacted the assigned Interlocutory Attorney by telephone to inform the Board that she has made several attempts to contact Petitioner for the purpose of scheduling the parties' required discovery and settlement conference pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.120(a)(1)-(a)(2), but has been unsuccessful.

Petitioner, or counsel for Petitioner if counsel is retained, is allowed until ten (10) days from the date of this order to contact counsel for Respondent, and to determine, with counsel for Respondent, a mutually convenient day and time for the conference.

In the event that Petitioner remains unresponsive, Respondent's counsel may so inform the Board, and the Board will schedule the conference in collaboration with Respondent's counsel's schedule. The Board will issue an order setting the date and time for the conference, and will hold the conference as scheduled. If Petitioner fails to participate therein Petitioner may be subject to a motion for sanctions pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.120(g). See TBMP § 408.01(a). In the alternative, the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against Petitioner based on Petitioner's apparent loss of interest in this proceeding. See Pro-Cuts v. Schilz-Price Enterprises, Inc., 27 USPQ2d 1224 (TTAB 1993).

Discovery and trial dates remain as set in the January 16, 2023 order.
