Cancellation No. 92082310

Matos Insurance Agency, Inc. and Armando J. Matos

v.

Mattos Insurance, Inc.

Ann Linnehan, Interlocutory Attorney

On July 17, 2025, the Board issued an order wherein in, among other things, it suspended proceedings to allow for the orderly completion of the oral cross-examination of A. Kamila Silva. 52 TTABVUE. Such order specifically directed the parties to file a notice of completion of this oral cross-examination within five days of the date of its completion. The order also indicated that proceedings would then be reset by Board order. The order stated that after it received notice that the elected oral cross-examination of A. Kamila Silva was complete, the Board would resume proceedings beginning with Petitioner's rebuttal disclosure due date. It appears the parties, once again, resumed this proceeding without an order from the Board.

On July 25, 2025, Respondent filed the declaration of Tiago Mangueira. 53 TTABVUE. On the same day, Respondent filed a notice of the filing of the testimony of Tiago Mangueira. 54 TTABVUE. On July 31, 2025, Petitioner filed a notice of its election to the oral cross-examination of Tiago Mangueira. 55 TTABVUE. On September 3, 2025, Petitioner filed notice of the postponement of the oral cross examination of Tiago Mangueira. 60 TTABVUE.

In addition, on August 4, 2025, Respondent filed a second notice of reliance, 56 TTABUVE, and its notice of the filing of the testimony declaration of A. Kamila Silva, 57 TTABVUE.

On August 7, 2025, Petitioner gave the Board notice of its filing of certain testimonial deposition transcripts (for Tracey Ellis, Sam Freitas, and Solange Buldrini). 58 TTABVUE. Alas, on the same day, Petitioner filed notice of the completion of the deposition of A. Kamila Silva. 59 TTABVUE.

The parties are reminded that a party may not take testimony or present evidence outside of its assigned testimony period, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, on motion, by order of the Board. Trademark Rule 2.121(a). To the extent it is unclear what agreement the parties have made with regard to a trial schedule, the Board allows the parties SEVEN DAYS to inform the Board of the schedule they are using for this proceeding.

In the event the Board does not hear from the parties within the time allowed, all filings from 53 TTABVUE to 58 TTABVUE and the filing located at 60 TTABVUE will receive no consideration and the Board will reset dates based the assumption that the Silva cross-examination is complete and the schedule should be reset beginning with Petitioner's rebuttal testimony period.

NO OTHER documents should be filed in this proceeding until the parties comply with this order.

Proceedings are suspended.
