Millicent Canady, Paralegal Specialist:

The notice instituting this proceeding was forwarded to registrant, Cranford Stores, LLC but was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

Counsel for applicant is advised that it is the responsibility of the concurrent use applicant, which has the burden of proving its entitlement to concurrent registration, to provide information concerning the current address of each specified excepted users See 37 CFR §§2.42, and 2.99(e). See also TBMP §§ 1103.01(e) and 1106.05. If, as in this case, a notice or other communication sent by the Board to a specified excepted user is returned as undeliverable, the concurrent use applicant will be required to investigate further and furnish the correct address. Unless and until the concurrent use applicant does so, the proceeding cannot go forward. Alternatively, if upon further investigation, the concurrent use applicant learns that a specified excepted user has abandoned its use of this mark, the concurrent use applicant may file a motion to amend its application to delete reference to that user See TBMP § 1106.05.

In view thereof, proceedings herein are suspended to allow applicant an opportunity to either (i) furnish the correct address for Cranford Stores, LLC, or (2) properly amend its involved concurrent use application to remove the concurrent use restrictions regarding Cranford Stores, LLC.

The parties will be notified by the Board when proceedings are resumed, and appropriate action will be taken.
